B1

What is a common way to pay for items in a store?

Answer: _____

Where can you find sales or discounts on products?

Answer: _____

When is it a good time to go shopping to avoid crowds?

Answer: _____

Why is it important to compare prices before making a purchase?

Answer: _____

Who can assist you in finding a specific item in a store?

Answer: _____

How can you check if an item is in stock before going to the store?

Answer: _____

Which stores offer free returns or exchanges?

Answer: _____

What should you do if you receive a defective or damaged item?

Answer: _____

Can you negotiate the price of an item in a store?

Answer: _____

Should you check the size or fit of an item before buying it?

Answer: _____

Answers

What is a common way to pay for items in a store?

Answer: Paying with cash or credit card

Where can you find sales or discounts on products?

Answer: In advertisements or online

When is it a good time to go shopping to avoid crowds?

Answer: During weekdays or early morning

Why is it important to compare prices before making a purchase?

Answer: To ensure you get the best deal

Who can assist you in finding a specific item in a store?

Answer: Store employees or customer service

How can you check if an item is in stock before going to the store?

Answer: By calling the store or checking their website

Which stores offer free returns or exchanges?

Answer: Some stores offer free returns or exchanges

What should you do if you receive a defective or damaged item?

Answer: Contact the store and request a replacement

Can you negotiate the price of an item in a store?

Answer: In some situations, it's possible to negotiate

Should you check the size or fit of an item before buying it?

Answer: Yes, it's important to try it on or check measurements