

A2

Mozart was a famous _____ composer.

Answer: _____

Which is the highest male singing voice?

Answer: _____

What is the lowest female singing voice?

Answer: _____

What does the term 'piano' mean in music?

Answer: _____

What is the function of a conductor?

Answer: _____

What are the four main sections of a symphony orchestra?

Answer: _____

Who composed the 'Moonlight Sonata'?

Answer: _____

What is a leitmotif in music?

Answer: _____

What is the difference between major and minor keys?

Answer: _____

What is a pitch?

Answer: _____

Answers

Mozart was a famous _____ composer.

Answer: classical

Which is the highest male singing voice?

Answer: countertenor

What is the lowest female singing voice?

Answer: contralto

What does the term 'piano' mean in music?

Answer: soft

What is the function of a conductor?

Answer: to lead the musicians

What are the four main sections of a symphony orchestra?

Answer: strings, woodwinds, brass, percussion

Who composed the 'Moonlight Sonata'?

Answer: Ludwig van Beethoven

What is a leitmotif in music?

Answer: a recurring theme associated with a character or idea

What is the difference between major and minor keys?

Answer: major keys sound bright and happy, while minor keys sound sad and gloomy.

What is a pitch?

Answer: how high or low a sound is