

B2

What is the definition of tempo in music?

Answer: _____

Name three types of music scales.

Answer: _____

What is the difference between major and minor keys?

Answer: _____

What is the purpose of a crescendo in music?

Answer: _____

Define the term pitch in music.

Answer: _____

What are the main components of a musical score?

Answer: _____

Explain the concept of harmony in music.

Answer: _____

What is a time signature and how is it represented?

Answer: _____

Name three famous composers from the Classical era.

Answer: _____

Describe the role of dynamics in music.

Answer: _____

Answers

What is the definition of tempo in music?

Answer: The speed or pace of a piece of music.

Name three types of music scales.

Answer: Major, minor, and chromatic scales.

What is the difference between major and minor keys?

Answer: Major keys sound bright or happy, while minor keys sound dark or sad.

What is the purpose of a crescendo in music?

Answer: To gradually increase the volume of the music.

Define the term pitch in music.

Answer: The highness or lowness of a sound.

What are the main components of a musical score?

Answer: Musical notes, clefs, key signature, time signature, and musical symbols.

Explain the concept of harmony in music.

Answer: The combination of different sounds played together.

What is a time signature and how is it represented?

Answer: A time signature indicates the number of beats per measure and is represented by a fraction.

Name three famous composers from the Classical era.

Answer: Mozart, Beethoven, Haydn.

Describe the role of dynamics in music.

Answer: Dynamics refer to the loudness or softness of the music.