

C1

By 2050, the world's population _____ to 9.7 billion people.

Answer: _____

In the future, scientists _____ new solutions to global food shortages.

Answer: _____

By 2030, people _____ eating insects as a sustainable protein source.

Answer: _____

Restaurants _____ offering personalized 3D-printed meals in the near future.

Answer: _____

Farmers _____ using advanced technology to increase crop yields.

Answer: _____

Food delivery _____ be done entirely by drones in a few years.

Answer: _____

Vertical farming _____ the way we grow food in urban areas.

Answer: _____

In the future, we _____ more environmentally-friendly packaging for food.

Answer: _____

Scientists _____ develop lab-grown meat as a viable alternative to traditional meat.

Answer: _____

In the coming years, people _____ more plant-based diets for health and sustainability reasons.

Answer: _____

Answers

By 2050, the world's population _____ to 9.7 billion people.

Answer: will grow

In the future, scientists _____ new solutions to global food shortages.

Answer: will discover

By 2030, people _____ eating insects as a sustainable protein source.

Answer: will consider

Restaurants _____ offering personalized 3D-printed meals in the near future.

Answer: will start

Farmers _____ using advanced technology to increase crop yields.

Answer: will be

Food delivery _____ be done entirely by drones in a few years.

Answer: will be

Vertical farming _____ the way we grow food in urban areas.

Answer: will revolutionize

In the future, we _____ more environmentally-friendly packaging for food.

Answer: will use

Scientists _____ develop lab-grown meat as a viable alternative to traditional meat.

Answer: will strive to

In the coming years, people _____ more plant-based diets for health and sustainability reasons.

Answer: will embrace