

C1

What is the symbol for C1 in the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA)?

Answer: _____

How is the sound of C1 pronounced?

Answer: _____

Can you give an example word that contains the sound of C1?

Answer: _____

Is the sound of C1 voiced or voiceless?

Answer: _____

How would you describe the placement of the tongue when making the sound of C1?

Answer: _____

Does the sound of C1 exist in English?

Answer: _____

What other languages have the sound of C1?

Answer: _____

Can you give an example sentence using a word with the sound of C1?

Answer: _____

Can you think of a word that starts with the sound of C1?

Answer: _____

How do you spell the word 'cat' using the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA)?

Answer: _____

Answers

What is the symbol for C1 in the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA)?

Answer: s

How is the sound of C1 pronounced?

Answer: A fricative sound produced by placing the tip of the tongue against the alveolar ridge.

Can you give an example word that contains the sound of C1?

Answer: Sun, listen, fast

Is the sound of C1 voiced or voiceless?

Answer: Voiceless

How would you describe the placement of the tongue when making the sound of C1?

Answer: Alveolar placement

Does the sound of C1 exist in English?

Answer: No

What other languages have the sound of C1?

Answer: Spanish, Italian

Can you give an example sentence using a word with the sound of C1?

Answer: She sells seashells by the seashore.

Can you think of a word that starts with the sound of C1?

Answer: Sun

How do you spell the word 'cat' using the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA)?

Answer: /kæt/