

C1

Why is it important to set a budget before going shopping?

Answer: _____

What should you do before making a purchase to find the best deal?

Answer: _____

How can you determine if investing in a higher-quality item is worth the price?

Answer: _____

What are some different shopping habits people may have?

Answer: _____

What should you consider before diving into online shopping?

Answer: _____

What is impulse buying and how can you avoid it?

Answer: _____

What are some ways to shop sustainably?

Answer: _____

Why is it important to familiarize yourself with return and exchange policies?

Answer: _____

How can you take advantage of sales without overspending?

Answer: _____

What are shopaholic tendencies and how can one seek help for them?

Answer: _____

Answers

Why is it important to set a budget before going shopping?

Answer: To keep track of expenses and avoid overspending.

What should you do before making a purchase to find the best deal?

Answer: Conduct research and compare prices.

How can you determine if investing in a higher-quality item is worth the price?

Answer: Consider needs and preferences.

What are some different shopping habits people may have?

Answer: Shopping alone or with friends/family.

What should you consider before diving into online shopping?

Answer: Benefits/drawbacks, security measures, and payment options.

What is impulse buying and how can you avoid it?

Answer: Making unplanned purchases, avoid by making a list and sticking to it.

What are some ways to shop sustainably?

Answer: Supporting eco-friendly brands, reducing waste.

Why is it important to familiarize yourself with return and exchange policies?

Answer: To know what to do in case of returns or exchanges.

How can you take advantage of sales without overspending?

Answer: Approach them with caution, make a shopping list.

What are shopaholic tendencies and how can one seek help for them?

Answer: Compulsive shopping habits, seek professional help or support groups.